DEDICATION

Lick kids love their art. In a school that has become infamous for its variety of technical arts programs, one would think that your average studio art might get lost in the process. However, it's really quite the contrary. Not only is Lick's studio art program still up and running, but most of the Lick student body can't resist having taken at least one of the three levels offered at some point in their Lick careers. They will also tell you that those good old studio art days would have been nothing without its teacher- Mr. Osipoff (aka Mr.O).

Not only has he taught us all to draw 3-d bowls to our hearts content, or how to make portraits that actually look like our subjects in every imaginable medium, but he has also made art class a means to explore our indivual styles. Whereas most teachers would impose their own preferences and opinions on their students, Mr. O is ever encouraging students to explore their own means of expression. He pushes us to experiment with any idea that interests us and to get the most out of our experience by exploring new techinques.

Mr. O, just as your classes offer us a welcomed break from Lick's acedemic stresses, we appreciate your intensely laid-back style, which makes art one of our most enjoyed classes. We thank you not only for your dedication to your art, but also for your dedication to your students.

We think your're awesome.

Dear Class of 2006,

What a remarkable collage you are! Scholars, athletes, artists, musicians, designers, inventors, craftspeople, leaders....your class is a kaleidoscope of these attributes and so many other ways. Yet, as I celebrate you and all you have done for our school, I think first about the size of your collective heart and the expansiveness of your sense of caring, your graciousness and your pride.

You have experienced or witnessed the best and the worst during your four years on Ocean Avenue: the birth of the Tech and Design Center and Cafeteria/Student Center, Lick's recognition among the top ten eco-friendly schools in America, the emergence of Reshaping High School and VISION 2010 on one hand; the Indonesian tsunami, Hurricane Katrina and the uncertainties of the Iraq War on the other.

In the best of times, you have demonstrated humility, grace and appreciation. In the face of challenges, you have shown intelligence, compassion and resolve. In all circumstances, you have maintained your focus, have taken care of one another and have achieved at a high level.

On behalf of the faculty and your fellow students, I thank you for the many and varied ways you have enriched the family we call "Lick-Wilmerd ing." And, on behalf of those within your communities and around the world whom you will touch throughout your lives, I thank you in ad vance for your good intentions and your capacity to make those intentions reality.

I wish you health, happiness and fulfillment. We will miss you.

Love, Dr. A.

Unbreakable! through the technical difficulties Unbreakable! We might have to take a break

But ya'll know we'll be back next week I'm say'n this love is unbreakable we livin our dreams

That's me in the corner, That's me in the spotlight, Losing my religion, Trying to keep up with you, and I don't know if I can do it, Oh no I've said too much, I haven't said enough, I think that I heard you laughing,

So make the best of this test and don't ask why. It's not a question but a lesson learned in time. It's something unpredictable, but in the end is right. I hope you had the time of your life.

Now what's the matter buddy, ain't you heard of my school? It's number one in the state... So be true to your school now, be true to your school I got a Letterman sweater, you let your colors fly

And God bless these ones not those ones, but these ones made times like these and times like those; what will be will be, and so it goes, and it always goes on and on and on and on it goes.

How Can I Help It If I Think It's Funny When You're Mad, Tryin' Hard Not To Smile Though I Feel Bad

I'm The Kind of Guy That Laughs At A Funeral. Can't Understand What I Mean? Well You Soon Will

once, your best

Congratulations!
Today is your day.
You're off to Great Places!
You're off and away!

You'll be on your way up!
You'll be seeing great sights!

But you can get all hung up in a prickle-ly perch.

Thank you to my family and friendi. I love you.

The artist is of no importance.

William Faulkner I'm not going to get into the ring with Tolstoy. The game of golf would lose a great deal if croquet mallets and billiard cues were allowed on the putting green. As you get older it is harder to have heroes, but it is sort of necessary. The shortest answer is doing the thing. Earnest Hemingway. And then I asked him with my eyes to ask again yes and then he asked me would I yes and his heart was going like mad and yes I said yes I will yes. Better pass boldly into that other world, in the full glory of some passion, than fade and wither dismally with age. All things are inconstant except the faith in the soul, which changes all things and fills their inconstancy with light, but though I seem to be driven out of my country as a misbeliever I have found no man yet with a faith like mine. This year's opening faculty meeting was a community service day at the EcoVillage Farm and Learning Center in Richmond. The 5.6-acre organic farm's mission is to help restore and protect the earth's ecological systems. The EcoVillage Farm Center's programs give children and young adults the chance to affect the natural environment at the micro-level. With only two full-time staff, there's always plenty to do.

A group of Lick Students spent a work day at the farm last year, and EcoVillage Founder and Executive Director Shyaam Shabaka, told us they were such hard workers and problem solvers that the faculty and staff "had a lot to live up to." The challenge was on! More than 80 teachers, administrators and staff spent a day in late August clearing the brush and ivy from a stream bed, installing drip irrigation, weeding an entire field of tomato plants, building a pig pen and painting produce stands.
